POLITICAL NOTES

The Louisville Courier Journal says the Democrats of Ohio and Pennsylvania cannot elect their ticket this fall But it consoles itself with the words "But that is all Next year every thing will come right again May be It is not likely

A Democrat who refuses to join the ranks of the 'military accoutrements' calls the Ohio platform 'the great crab movement of the Democratic party and says that it is an attempt 'to crawl backward out of sight of every principle always held sacred by the party.'

A crippled soldier who could not vote the Democrats to ticket before the war but who ceased to do so after he donned the army blue hearing of the 'new departure' asked to see the platform He read it and remarked, "That is the voice of Jacob, but the hand is the hand of Esau"

In an earnest appeal to the Northern people, warning them as it were that the dog days are coming and urging them to muzzle those dogs of war Toombs and Davis the Louisville Courier Journal says with pleasing frankness "Either we should detach ourselves from the Northern Democracy or else we should cease to compromise their interests"

The New York Day Book (Dem) says Some silly wretches calling themselves Democrats declare that certain deeds of the Montgomery party having been done must be undone and of course they must Just as a thief having got into your house, must be allowed to remain because he is in To talk of putting him out is a dead sure mind that 50 50 fools

The National Intelligencer now published in New York as a Democratic Free Trade paper says of Vallandigham's new departure

"The vital objection which which the National Intelligencer has to this doctrine is that it practically consigns the Democratic party to constant defeat in all general or bedrock elections As a national party the Democracy will cease to exist the moment it adopts the New Departure doctrine"

OREGON.

Major M P Berry, who was appointed agent of the Fort Hall Indian Reservation, has written to a gentleman in Salem that he intends to resign his office and return to Oregon.

A correspondent of the West Side writes that Tillamook county is a good place for a man with a family to make a home There will be a schooner launched at the bay of 150 tons burden, about October 1st

The plans for the M E Church at Salem, which were procured from Chicago, will be returned, as they were designed for too expensive a building Plans are to be ordered from Portland for an edifice to cost $30 000

Alluding to the departure of Col I R Moores, Land Agent of the O & C R R Co, from Salem to take up his residence in Portland, the Statesman sorrowfully says This was the only little drumb the railroad gave to Salem, and now that is gone we will try to forget that we ever aspired to be the headquarters of a great railway corporation

From the Statesman At the last term of court Bill Watkinds, the Governor's Superintendent, testified, while on the stand as a witness in a civil case, that during the campaign he had promised a great many Democrats appointments as guards at the Penitentiary if they would work for the Democratic ticket After the election it was impossible to accommodate them all and this model politician excuses himself for this bad faith by saying that he kept a little memorandum book in which the recorded the names of those with whom he really intended to keep his word

THE TERRITORIES

Gov Bowan, the new Executive of Idaho arrived at Boise City last week. He comes from Arkansas

Parties of emigrants with wagons are arriving at Walla Walla from the East They came by rail as far as Kelton

William A Yates formerly of Boise committed suicide at Silver City, Owyhee, on the morning of the 30th ult., by blowing his brains out with a pistol.

The project of building a bed rock flume to wash out the flats on Moore s creek in Boise Basin has been taken hold of in earnest The capital stock of the company is fixed at $500,000 Seven trustees have been appointed to manage the affairs of the company, viz B M Duffell, W B Noble G W Crafts J J Tompkins, D H Alderson J G Bryant, and W C Whitson all of Boise county The office of the company will be at Idaho City A great yield of gold is expected from this enterprise.

A Walla Walla paper publishes letters from the Secretary of the Treasury and the Collector of Customs for Puget Sound District which show that it is necessary for parties wishing to take pack trains out of the United States to British Columbia and afterwards to return the same to make out a descriptive list of their animals and have it filed at the Custom House, so that the animals may be fully identified on their return This is a matter of much importance to packers from Walla Walla and Colville

Charles H Douglas, on the 11th at Idaho City for killing Hon E D Holbrook, has been acquitted The Boise City Statesman in referring to the trial, says The community generally acquiesces in the verdict, and are content that it should have come out as it did. Time had allayed the feeling which was aroused at the time The only feeling at last was that justice should take its course We are satisfied that such course has been taken which cannot be said of many trials where so much bitter political feeling entered into their composition

CURRENT NOTES

It is not in order to speak of the unterrified Democracy in these days of new departures

Among the papers explaining how little the new departure means is the Richmond Enquirer That journal says that this new departure merely deprecates the revival at this time of the discussion of certain things from a Southern standpoint

Henry Ward Beecher says "It will scarcely be denied that men are superior to women as men, and that women are immeasurably superior to men, as women while both of them together are more than a match for either of them separately"

The Cincinnati Commercial sign ficantly says "The London Times of June 13th contains three and one broad columns of the debate in the House of Lords on the Washington treaty It was not thought necessary for the English statesmen to hide and half suffocate themselves when discussing this important document.

A most revolting case of child murder came to light a few days ago at Gallman, Illinois. It has been discovered that Marion Means an Irishman living near that place, about the 4th of June, so brutally whipped his little son, aged 10 years that the boy was unable next morning to move The father dragged him from bed and held him on a hot stove until he was horribly burned and then took a heavy whip and beat him to death On the 5th July Means was arrested and lodged in jail The same night 250 armed men took him out of jail and hanged him to a tree.

THE NORTHERN DEMOCRACY BROUGHT TO ACCOUNT—The Confederate chiefs are again in the field and this time they are bringing their lute allies to account for their recreancy in denouncing Jeff Davis because he failed to make their cause successful Hear the Calloway, (Mo.,) Ram Play on this subject and then judge if the Democracy of the North are not ingrain cowards and also ingrates for going back on their old favorite and champion

Says that paper

No man who ever worthily wore the uniform of the Confederate States can behold the recent comments of the shrill Democratic press upon some late public utterances of that great man and Christian gentleman Jefferson Davis without a feeling of mortification of self contempt, of loathing of partisan politics stronger and more disgusting than he would have felt if every soldier and officer in Dixie had been compelled to go down on his knees to Abe Lincoln and beg for his life

The Income Tax

It has been decided by Judge Strong of the United States Circuit Court at Philadelphia that the income tax is constitutional His remarks on the point were brief and direct He said

If it be true as has been argued that the income tax is a "capitation or other direct tax within the meaning of the Constitution it is undoubtedly prohibited by the first and fourth sections of the first article for it is not apportioned among the States But I am not of opinion that it is a capitation or other direct tax in the sense in which the framers of the Constitution and the people of the States who adopted it and refused such taxes The reasons for my opinion it would answer no good purpose for me to state at length inasmuch as these cases will doubtless go to the Supreme Court for ultimate decision It is sufficient for me now to state that in my judgment Congress has a constitutional right to impose all the taxes of which the plaintiffs complain, and that none of them are such as must necessarily be apportioned With the policy of such an imposition I have as a judge nothing to do

Water Water

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

SIR I am glad—the whole community with rare exceptions are glad—that you are and have been, waking up the people to the necessity of securing an adequate supply of pure healthful and cheap water for the use of the denizens of this city this matter was canvassed with another of scarcely less importance by the people of Portland previous to the late corporation election What ever you may suppose I believe that the decided results of that election were caused by a belief that the Republican candidates if elected would carry out the wishes of our people in absolute necessity to the growth the health and prosperity of this city—an promising an adequate supply of healthful water and in opening Park street—so that we should have a grand avenue from the northern to the southern extremity of this city to be ornamented with trees and improvements equally distant from the east ern and western extremes of our city, for promenades and healthful recreation for the thirty thousand people who, in ten years, will make Portland their home

To accomplish these objects, so important to the character the health the growth and prosperity of Portland the people will look with anxious eyes to the proceedings of our City Council The Mayor has already given us his opinion and views frankly, fully and manfully, and it now rests with our City Council to carry them out

No timid wary policy will now meet the demands of our people They want action at once, energetically and persistently continued The City Council need not fear of lack of support from the people They have already given them their highest confidence in the faithful and prompt performance of their duties now imposed upon them by the needs and exigencies of this new and rapidly growing city They will be sustained to the last

Trusting that the cry of our people for water enough water pure water cheap water so that our people can all enjoy its blessings, from the manufacturer who needs it in abundance from the street sprinkler who would scatter it on other than dusty days and Second streets the city resident who would make green with it his garden his plants and shrubs in the drought of summer the useful laborer, who might enjoy his bath when returned from his daily labors or the needful washerwoman who would not be compelled to pay her last quarter for water to wash clothing by which employment she earns her bread All these and many others would bless and cheer and sustain the City Council in performing the high duties now imposed on them

One who wants pure, healthful abundant cheap WATER

Portland July 12, 1871

About eighty miles above Walla Walla on the Columbia river the mighty stream flowing between perpendicular walls of rock 2 000 feet high these walls being built by the Master s hand of breccia amygdaloid basalt and lava the voyager by canoe looking upward will see half way to the top of one of these faces of marvellous masonry a leafless tree, with a mind of basaltic bark The gentlemen of the Hudson Bay Company have been in the habit for half a century as they passed this forest legacy of ages and ages buried epoch, to show their skill with the rifle by dropping into their canoes pieces of the lava of a ball pieces of the extraneous rock the lumber The tree is wholly petrified It is rooted in its isolated position by the roots twisted and interlocked and crevices between layers of different eruptions It is 120 feet above the No flood could have deposited it there The testimony of the twisted root intertwined roots that the tree grew where it stands is conclusive The testimony would seem to be conclusive too that the tree, after being silicified was denuded from its volcanic matrix by water action likewise that the Columbia has guttered through the lava to its present level —Sam I Bellasson in the Christian Union

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 13 1871

The Holly System

A recent report of the Committee of the Common Council of Grand Rapids, Michigan, on the subject of water supply for that city, embodies much information in relation to the Holly plan This plan was made a subject of special examination by the Committee, and the result of the investigation was that the Common Council of the city decided to contract at once for the construction of the works

The first step taken by the Committee, as we learn from their report, was the sending of circulars to twenty cities where works constructed on the Holly plan were reported in operation,—soliciting information as to the practical workings of the system, and such details as would assist the Committee in coming to correct conclusions Returns were received from nearly all the places to which the circulars were addressed, and abundant proof was obtained, not only establishing the fact that the system is well adapted to furnishing an abundance of water for domestic and general purposes, but also that it is an absolute protection against disastrous fires,—it being possible in most cases by suitable arrangements in the buildings and connections with the mains, for every man to so far control the fires that may originate on his premises as to render an alarm in most cases unnecessary

No difficulty has been encountered in forcing an abundant supply of water to a height of three hundred, or even four hundred feet At Peoria, Ill., it is furnished on the bluff at a height of nearly three hundred feet above the source of supply, and at Atlanta (Ga), it is furnished at even greater altitudes The fact of superior fire protection is recognized by insurance companies by large reduction of rates. Peoria (Ill.) and Canton (Ohio) report that their rates of insurance are reduced twenty five per cent , Binghamton (N Y), thirty-three per cent , and Kalamazoo (Mich), thirty-three to fifty per cent The evidence on all these points is reported conclusive.

The matter of cost is next to be examined. The estimate of the cost for the city of Grand Rapids was as follows

Pumping engines and boilers	$ 65,000
Y Reservoir and mains	125,000
Double hydrants	500
Stop valves, etc	3 000
Engine house and lot	10,000
A y connections	6 000
Engineering and office ex	5 000
Incidental and unfo y expenses	10 000
	$220 500

This is probably considerably more than the cost for this city would be. Machinery capable of supplying 2,000,000 gallons a day would cost, as we are informed by a letter from the Secretary of the Holly Company which we published two days ago, the sum of $32,000 The mains for the city would not be above half as much as those estimated above, and in other particulars the expenses would be less It is safe to say that the entire cost of the works for this city, having a capacity to furnish an abundant supply of water for the next fifteen years, would not exceed $150,000. The interest of this sum say at ten per cent. would be $15 000 Running expenses would probably not exceed $10,000 a year At Grand Rapids they are estimated at $8,000, We should then have an annual charge of $25,000 to meet This could be paid by water rents and the saving in the cost of maintaining our fire establishments, and water could at the same time be supplied at much lower rates than now This is a rough sketch of a very important matter, and we submit it simply as a possible basis for further investigation by the authorities of the city.

Testimony about the Ku Klux

In August, 1868, the Cincinnati Commercial published a letter from a correspondent in Tennessee, who had just met Gen. Forest,—then at Fort Pillow fame This writer stated that Forrest had assured him of the existence of the Ku Klux, and asserted that the organization in all the Southern States numbered 40,000 men. Forrest said that he knew all about the organization, knew its principal officers in Tennessee (whose names, however, he declined to disclose) and was perfectly well acquainted with its aims and objects. When this letter appeared in print Forrest hastened to modify its statements He did not attempt to deny the material points of it, but only desired to correct it He wrote an explanatory letter in which he said: "I stated that it was reported, and I believed the report, that there are 40,000 Ku Klux in Tennessee, and I believe the organization stronger in other States This declaration, let it be remembered, was written with his own hand and subscribed with his own name Yet when he was summoned to testify before the Congressional Committee a few days ago he stoutly denied that there were any Ku Klux in the South' On being closely plied with questions he admitted that he was a member of a secret political organization called the "Knights of White Camelia" or "Order of Pale Faces,' but declined to respond further on the ground that he was "not obliged, he supposed, to answer certain questions if they criminated himself'

He further testified that he had himself disbanded the Ku Klux organization a good while ago, thereby admitting that he was a member of it He was asked to give the names of other members, but could recall only a few, and they belonged to persons who have since died and whom it would do the Committee no good to know. His testimony was, substantially, that the Ku Klux up to a recent date, had been in operation throughout the South, and that he was a member of the gang , but since their alleged disbandment he had belonged to another organization, formed for similar purposes This is the substance of the testimony of Forrest, which Democratic journals have boasted of as proof that the Ku Klux organization has no existence. He owns that at this moment he belongs to a secret body of men known by various titles, but undoubtedly having the same general purposes as the Ku Klux He reveals altogether too much for his party

The Democracy are continually harping on the extravagance of the Republican party and crying for retrenchment and reform We hope all the members of both political parties will note the fact, that whilst in twenty-eight months the debt of the city of New York which is under the heel of Democracy, has increased $52,216,566 18, under the administration of General Grant the taxes have been reduced one hundred millions, and the National Debt nearly two hundred and fifty millions How could the country bear up under Democratic ascendancy? About four years of it would ravel the nation bankrupt, and leave it, as Democracy left it in 1861, without means to put salt on its tail itself

New discoveries of gold have been made on a stream known as Yankee fork of Salmon river The diggings are said to yield $ a d.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—The excitement over the New York news this afternoon has been intense, but the police is active in preventing any serious collisions, and generally everybody abstained from remarks or discussions of a character to provoke a breach of the peace. Ultra Catholic Irishmen generally denounce the Orange parade in unmeasured terms as an outrage and insult to a very large class of our adopted citizens, but beyond that no one seems inclined to go

The Polish tailor, Alfred Stoppenski, who stabbed himself and cut his throat in a fit of insanity yesterday, died this morning at the City Hospital

Street Superintendent Ashley has divided the city into two districts, and is organizing his force to commence work immediately sweeping the streets at night time, in order to avoid discommoding the public with the dust

The Produce Exchange to day elected the following officers President, Horace Davis , Vice President, E G Matthews Treasurer, E Ransom , Directors, N C Fascoit, C Locke J P Hume, Thomas Nowell, J D Ryan and David Cook

The stock market is rather stronger this afternoon, and the feeling generally more confident

Five hundred volumes of books, many of them very old and rare, and among them many in manuscript, said to have belonged to Maximilian's library, and all bearing his monogram and crest, have been received here by a local dealer for sale They are doubtless a portion of the plunder of the colleges in the City of Mexico, carried off by Bazaine when he was retreating from the country, as everything belonging to Maximilian, except a part of his personal baggage previously sent off in an Austrian frigate from Vera Cruz, was captured by the Republicans and confiscated .

Miss Anthony has a good audience at Platt's Hall this evening for her first lecture, but not quite so large as Mrs Stanton drew last night Both audiences are composed rather of people curious to see and hear celebrities than of sympathy with the cause they represent

Rev. T Dewitt Talmadge, of Brooklyn, arrived here this evening

A Mexican who found Auguste Camp after he was shot by "The Ohmken," near Bay View, and took him to the depot, had been found by the police to day This completes the chain of testimony and makes out as clear a case as ever went into court

Capt. James Hughes, of the Veteran Guard, left here this evening to relieve Capt Woodhams, of Sumner Guard, in command of the State troops in Amador county

Officer Englander having said something jokingly about the New York riots, was knocked down and kicked on coming out of the police court room this evening, by Dennis Sullivan, with whom he had no previous acquaintance Sullivan was arrested.

The Young Men's Republican club are holding an enthusiastic meeting at Dashaway Hall this evening, which is being addressed by William H Sears, who will canvass the district for the Republican ticket

Miss Anthony, this evening in her lecture, attempted a defense of Mrs Fair, when there was such a general hiss that she immediately changed the subject

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

The Sacramento Lottery

SACRAMENTO, July 12 —Public interest in the gift concert of the Pioneer Society seems to revive as the date of drawing approaches Tickets are in demand selling freely, but few remaining on hand at the general office. The managers announce the drawing positively to take place on the 15th inst , and that there will be no abatement in the amount of prizes

SACRAMENTO, July 12 —The Odd Fellow's Hall Association met to night and elected the following officers President, James McCleery , Secretary, W C Felch Treasurer, P H Russell

The following decision, rendered to day, possesses features of general interest About three months ago a suit had been instituted in the Supreme Court to compel the Board of Supervisors of Butte county to levy an additional tax to pay the interest on $200 000 of bonds issued in 1861 by that county to the Oroville and Marysville Railroad Company. It was alleged in the petition that the Board had levied a tax wholly insufficient to pay the interest; had in fact evaded the provisions of the law requiring them to levy a tax sufficient to pay the interest by levying a mere nominal sum, and the court was asked to compel them to levy a tax of eighty cents on the hundred dollars The cause came on in the Supreme Court yesterday, and was argued by Judge Beatty for the petitioner, and by Creed Haymond for Butte county The court decided that the law left it in the discretion of the Board to determine the amount, and that no court could review the exercise of that decision The effect of this decision is to practically nullify the bonds It leaves it in the power of the Board of Supervisors to fix the tax at one cent on the hundred dollars, if they see proper to do so, and the bondholders are without remedy A decision declaring the bonds invalid would not have been more disastrous to the bondholders The Supreme Court to day granted a petition for a writ of habeas corpus to David Calderwood, recently fined by Judge Sawyer of the San Francisco County Court in the sum of $500 for contempt, made returnable before Judge McKinstry by next Saturday at 11 o'clock A M

CARSON, Nev , July 12 —The dwelling house of Robert Folstone 14 miles northeast of this city on the Virginia road, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon together with all its contents. Loss about $1,600 Insured.

SANTA BARBARA, July 12 —The steamer Pacific arrived to-day About 2 o'clock the first night out of San Francisco, John Hunt, passenger, fell overboard. The steamer was backed and every exertion made to save him, which prove unavailing

Judge Selden S Wright broke his leg on board the steamer Pacific while in port here

AMADOR, Cal , July 12 —This morning the body of Joseph Johnson, formerly engineer at a distillery was discovered about six miles east of town, lying dead from the effect of a gunshot wound in the abdomen His gun broken at the stock and a dead hare at his side, gave evidence that in striking at the hare with the butt of his gun, it was discharged

EUREKA, Nevada, July 12 —About 1 o'clock to day the boarding house at the Eureka Consolidated Co 's mine, caught fire from a defective stove pipe, and in a few minutes was entirely consumed Loss about $700

Four Chinamen endeavored to drown another Chinaman in Chinatown to-day They did not succeed and all four are now in custody

There is a spirit of manliness and a sense of justice in the conduct of the authorities of the State of New Jersey which is refreshingly in contrast with the cowardly truckling of the New York City authorities to the mob which threatened to break up the parade in that city If any one sect, class, creed, order or nationality propose to monopolize all rights and privileges in this country it is time every body should know it The people are in favor of the protection of every order or organization that desires to assemble peaceably for a parade, and if it has come to the pass that only one organization can enjoy that right, or that any other organization is deprived of it we had better have another war It will be seen by the dispatches this morning that Gov Hoffman has been moved to revoke the shameful order of the New York City authorities This relieves the Executive of the State of the odium. He dared not permit such an outrage to pass unrebuked

The Herald has a new theme It argues elaborately in favor of the rights of slaveholders in the Territories, and says the Republican party brought on the war by not conceding those rights "Slavery in the Territories," seems to be one of the ' live issues ' under the new departure

CITY.

THE MURDER TRIALS.—As we stated yesterday morning, the jury in the case of Thos Ward, charged (and) tried for the murder of Isaiah Graham was empaneled at between 10 and 11 o'clock Tuesday morning Yesterday morning their verdict was rendered into Court, "guilty of murder in the second degree" The punishment for this crime is fixed by law at for life in the penitentiary.

The trial of Zed Wilson, indicted for murder in the first degree in the killing of John Kelly, by shooting, was commenced yesterday morning Forty six jurors were examined before the trial panel was completed. The rest of the day, till the usual hour of adjournment, was consumed in the taking of testimony The argument was opened at 5 o'clock P M, by C E Upton of counsel for the State, with the understanding that each side would have one hour for argument Gibbs and Upton for the prosecution, and Bybee, Cronin and Moreland, for the defense The case went to the jury at 8 30 o'clock During the trial, Wilson's wife and two little girls sat beside him Wilson was looking well, though evidently nervous The line of defense chosen was that the act committed by the prisoner under the fear and apprehensions for his own life, the deceased having, at various times, uttered threats and manifested violence upon the prisoner and that the fear of the deceased had become a monomania with the prisoner

RISEMAN TOWNS.—Not long since we had occasion to speak of the town of Gervais, built lately by A. [illegible] and, upon the well known farm of Sam [illegible] Prairie, as a town of remarkable growth. At that time, early in June, the place had [illegible] or more business and other houses, and built this season Since then as we are informed by a gentleman who came down yesterday the town has fully doubled. Nearly all of the [illegible] town of St Louis has been removed to Gervais—business, residents and all No addition to this growth can be shown in this county since the days when towns grew up, in the night, and were as suddenly deserted again, some fine day, for some other point [illegible] present The town of Halsey, seventeen miles beyond Albany, comes nearest perhaps, to being a parallel case of rapid growth. Mr [illegible] of the Bulletin, having been there within the last three or four days, says of it At this time buildings are occupied in Halsey, the other on the ground for six more in process of erection and lumber has been purchased (to ar[illegible] ten or twelve others Among those [illegible] and building we notice a fine large grain [illegible], 36 by 80 feet in size, built for Clem[illegible] Cornell, late of this city, and a store 22 by [illegible] by the same parties Mr Thompson is just [illegible] a warehouse 36 by 90. He has just [illegible] a store Two churches will be built in this [illegible]

SEASIDE ATTRACTIONS.—We learn from an [illegible] gentleman that, in addition to the former [illegible] ctions at Clatsop Beach, Mr J F [illegible], formerly of the U S Volunteer Army, [illegible] a fine house on the road to the Sum[illegible] Ferry, and within half a mile of the beach, a full view of the ocean and beach He calls his [illegible] the Ocean House" There is near the [illegible] lake of a mile and a half in length, and [illegible] stream with a fall of 80 feet within a [illegible] of a mile These and the surrounding [illegible] afford excellent fishing, hunting and fresh [illegible] bathing. The ocean beach can be reached [illegible] a mile by a new carriage road, and con[illegible] can be had at any time when wanted In addition to the sea side accommodations will be [illegible] ated by the crowds of people [illegible] who will be flocking down to the beach for salt water and health

MANIFEST OF BARK MELANCTHON.—The bark [illegible] son Patterson, Master, arrived from San [illegible] Tuesday evening. The following is [illegible] Manifest of freight J McCraken 1 225 [illegible] P D & H Co 17, E Cartwright 400, Oregon [illegible] Works 2, Hodge, Calef & Co 39 Knapp, [illegible] & C 342, Oregon City Manufacturing Co [illegible], [illegible] Failing 3, Friedman & Co 605, E J Nor[illegible] & Co 58, Burgran & Shindler 28, G L Story [illegible], J W Zimmerman 11, U W 100, Wallamet [illegible] Woolen 1, Smith 259, Smith & Davis 239, [illegible] & Co 1, Wm Young 3, B & C 18, [illegible] and, 19, O H Woodward & Co 9 W [illegible] & Co 23, S, in diamond, W 9, M Seller [illegible], Lownsten & Co 9

MANIFEST OF BARK R. W. WOOD.—The Ha[illegible] bark R. W. Wood, W. P Weeks, Master, cleared yesterday morning from Honolulu The [illegible] is a manifest of her freight 409 kegs [illegible] by J McCraken & Co, 2 336 kegs sugar, [illegible] pigs molasses, 146 bales pulu and 100 tons [illegible] in bulk to Corbitt & Macleay, 286 bags sugar [illegible] Ridge, Wadhams & Co, 3 bags peanuts to [illegible]. The R W Wood sailed from Honolulu on the 10th June. She is a vessel of 337 39 reg[illegible] tonnage, owned by James L Dorsett, [illegible]

FOR YAKIMA.—Yesterday afternoon we found [illegible] Lafayette Masters and A Shockley, of the city loading up an outfit consisting of mat[illegible] blankets, provisions, shot-guns, powder, [illegible] tricks and traps of a general nature "too numerous to mention," for a journey to the "Ah-[illegible] creek, Yakima valley, whither they [illegible] to establish a stock ranch. They will [illegible] the morning by the Dalles boat We wish [illegible] all sorts of good luck and bands of cattle [illegible] as fruitful as were those of the Scriptural [illegible]

IRON CURTS.—One of three iron cells, manufactured of boiler iron at the Oregon Iron Works for the Albany jail, was hauled down to the P T Co's wharf yesterday for shipment by boat to Albany. It is a complete room of about [illegible] by 16 feet and 9 feet high It looks as though [illegible] 40 bold Shultz or any other man, till such time as the toot of Gabriel's horn shall burst the [illegible] of death, etc, and turn the prisoners of all [illegible] loose. The cells each weigh about 5 300 [illegible]

[illegible] —There was a report in the city late [illegible] day evening to the effect that the party of [illegible] ish gentlemen who had started for Washington county in the afternoon had met with a serious [illegible] Went on this side of the mountain by the up[illegible] breaking of one of their carriages We are glad to learn that the report was greatly exaggerated and [illegible] no very serious hurt was received by any of the party.

CROPS INJURED.—We learn through a gentleman who has this week passed through portions of Polk and Yamhill counties, that the latest (very late) sown grain in the foothills is receiving much injury from the late very hot weather The earlier sown grain is as yet doing well, and if we have average weather from now till harvest, the crop will be full. The grain of the valley proper seems is not affected at all, injuriously, as yet

A FAVORED REGION.—Mr H. B Oatman, of the firm of Oatman & Hackney, has just returned from a trip to Southern Oregon—Rogue River valley He represents that after leaving Portland he found things as he went south, growing dull, duller dullest He is satisfied that Portland and Willamette valley are the favored regions of the north Pacific coast.

BODY FOUND.—A dispatch was received from Albany last evening addressed to Mr Richmond of this city, apprising him that the body of his son had been found in the Calapooia at the bridge in a partial state of decomposition This was came from Mr Holton, conductor on the [illegible]

STEAMER TO SAIL.—The sailing of the John L. Stephens was postponed till 7 o'clock this morning The steamer Constantine will sail at the same hour—both for San Francisco. The Caledonia, for the north, will sail at 7 P M on Saturday, July 22d

THE SMALLEST MAN IN THE WORLD.—Gen Don Jose la Vega, who is only 27½ inches high, and weighing only 32½ pounds, will appear at the Washington Guard's Armory this evening

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—Two companies of infantry were landed at Fort Vancouver Tuesday morning by the steamer Oneonta, one from Lapwai and the other from Camp Harney

TRAMPS.—The employes of this office are great [illegible] indebted to Mr Geo M Kalliah for generous [illegible] of ice during these latter days of heat and dust.

PRISONER DISCHARGED.—After making up the record in the case of Zed. Wilson, the court discharged all other jurors on the special panel of [illegible]

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.—Mr A. B Rich[illegible] sold at auction yesterday, lots 1, 2, 7 and [illegible] in block 308, for $4,600—a good sale.

Our Skins are Selves,

And through millions of orifices comes the transparent fluid which nature does not need for vital purposes This is a wise provision of Providence but excessive perspiration is nevertheless, extremely weakening During the heats of summer all hard working men perspire to an extent that is more or less debilitating They, of all classes of the community require a wholesome invigorant at this season Let them not seek it in the liquors of the bar room; they will not find it there A medicated stimulant pure and undefiled is what they need and among this class of remedies Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands alone No valid plea can be urged against its use even by the goalers of Temperance itself for even the Maine law permits the sale of diffusive stimuli for medicinal purposes As a general renovating preparation the Bitters has no equal anywhere But this is only one of the merits of this famous invigorator Its regulating properties give it an immense superiority over all the tribe of the Pharmacopeia In cases of chronic constipation it is the most useful and certain of all remedies It creates no violent commotion in the discharging organs but gently relieving them of their obstructions leaves them in a healthy vigorous condition It seems unnecessary to state, in view of the mass of testimony as to its effects in dyspepsia, that it is a permanent cure for that terrible but too general complaint

The numerous 'Bitters' under various names which mercenary dealers endeavor to substitute for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should be avoided, for their own sakes, by the sick and the public at large. Hostetter's Bitters are procurable in bottles only, and never sold in bulk.

It is PURELY VEG

How it Looks.

After long and bitterly denouncing the constitutional amendments as born of tyranny and fraud, and as transforming the government into a despotism, a portion of the Democratic party now propose to accept these "villainies" and promise never to disturb them. But the Memphis Appeal which has been "cheek by jowl" with these Democrats in denouncing these amendments, refuses utterly to "depart" with them, nothing convinced of either the manliness or the wisdom of the thin trick proposed. Accordingly it talks straight out, thus:

The Amendments have been denounced from their inception through all the steps of their progress by the whole Democratic press of the country. It was seen to be a little difficult to eat all these words of invective, to acknowledge the usurpations to be benign facts, to contrive the way to prevent a free people from trampling them under foot the first opportunity. It was plain that a Democrat who professed to fall in love with these Amendments would be regarded as on a cruise after the spoils. It was evident the departure would look like a surrender, that division and disaffection would be produced by it, that thousands would cease to take any active interest in political affairs, and that the danger of defeat by thus changing front on the edge of battle was imminent, and almost involved disaster. So our Departure men determined to turn only half way, and just sufficiently to put the enemy on their flank. They accepted the 14th and 15th, twenty-inch thunders as accomplished facts. But they will construe them into two harmless stove-pipes, without powder or ball, or means of rendering them efficient for anything but to carry off the smoke of the new half-way departure. They accept interpolations on the framework of the Constitution, as law, never ... with to be resisted, and yet in the ... know that their departure is only ... that they mean to construe the ... harmless out of sight so soon ... they have the power. The plan of battle ... apparent and open to the observation ... enemy. Does any man of sense ... triumph on such a programme? ... the enemy fail to pierce between the ... of the new Democratic armor? Will ... leaders be firm and trusty in ... hypocrite, to which ... Will there ... and ... breath ... the ... and ... liberty, follow ... right ... and American ... rallies to victory ... inspiring ... Men who have ... right ... for the principles of true ... will surely never stop to fight for ... when these are laid aside. We ... national convention which will announce as the undying creed of the party ... rights to all men under the Constitution as it is—nothing more and nothing ... short of that we may have despotism, ... we shall not have peace. We may have ... but we shall not have victory.

Scotch Humor.

... are essentially stern and hard ... yet under all this lies a vein ... deep and kindly feeling, which gives a ... pleasantry even to rebuke, and, ... it forces a laugh, cannot offend. Take, ... instance, the story, as told by your friend ... Hamilton, of a clergyman who thought his ... people were ... rather and unreasonable ... in refusing to his using a MS. in delivering his sermons. They urged, "What guns yo ... up your ... papers to the pulpit?" He ... that it was best, for really he could ... remember his sermons, and must have ... papers. "Weel, weel, minister, then ... them ... and ... them."

We will cite just one more specimen from ... same source, by way of additional exam...

... examination by a minister of the ... previous to the administration of the ... a man was asked, "what kind of ... was Adam?" "Ou, just like ither foulk!" ... minister ... on having a more special ... of the first man, and pressed ... explanation. "Weel!" said the respond... "he was just like Joe Simpson, the horse ... so?" asked the minister, ... got onything) by him, and ...

... mained with pathos—deep, sen... feeling which, perhaps, is the best defi... of humor, after all—the richest store ... found in Scottish poetry, more especially ... the quaint old ballads for which the North ... eminently famous. Before going any ... further, it would be heresy to pass by Robert ... a man whom, whatever his faults, ... every true lover of genius adores. Of that ... special humor of which we have been speaking, there are no better specimens to be found ... in "The Cotter's Saturday Night," ... Tam-O'-Shanter," or that masterly satire ... the ... god of the Presbytery, "Holy ... Prayer." Epigrams are the truest ... of ... and humor, and for that ... are the most difficult feats of versifying ... to attempt, but Burns was remarkable, ... in this respect. Take the following, ... a pane of glass in an inn at Moffat:

"Ask why God made the gem so small,
And why so huge the granite?
Because God meant mankind should set
The higher value on it."

... this, to a lady who was looking up the ... during ... sermon:

"Fair maid, you need not take the hint,
Nor ... take pursing
... silvery sinners that he meant—
Not angels, such as you."

—Once a Week.

... INCIDENT OF A LEGISLATIVE VISIT ... INSANE ASYLUM.—A letter from Columbia South Carolina, says:

A committee of the South Carolina Legislature ... consisting of seven colored and two white members, recently visited the State Lunatic Asylum. It happened that one of the black members was Uncle Joseph Crews, a former negro trader, and among the asylum inmates was Mr. Carlisle, who formerly knew him in that capacity, while, owing to his insanity, the war and subsequent events were a blank. "Is he to be sold to-day, Mr. Crews?" asked Mr. Carlisle.

At first Uncle Joseph did not understand this question, but he suddenly recollected that Mr. Carlisle was insane, so he did not notice it. Mr. Carlisle looked intently at the Board of Regents. He took hold of their arms and hands, and felt of them all over, ... of course, not one of the Board noticed ... the unfortunate man's condition. ... questioned them closely as to their ... condition in life, as to family, ... had lived, and, indeed, behaved, ... Board thought, in a very singular manner. ... remonstrated Uncle Joseph.

"Well, Mr. Crews," said he, "I must say ... saw you with so likely a party of ... They certainly ought to bring good ... I have seen you, Mr. Crews, take ... of the meanest looking niggers to the ... block that were ever sold in the South. ... consternation on the part of the entire Board.] I am glad to see, Mr. Crews, ... you are picking up a better stock. Now, ... are really fine looking niggers. They ... well dressed and look happy and contented. Very different, Mr. Crews, from those you used to sell down there on Broad river. Do you remember, Mr. Crews, the time when you sold a nigger that had the small-pox to old Uncle ——?"

"Great God! what are you talking about, man;" shouted Uncle Joseph, unable to stand it any longer. "Let us go, I say," as Mr. Carlisle grasped his hand as if to detain him; "don't you see that we are the Board of Regents come to visit the 'Sylum?"

KIT CARSON.—In person, Kit Carson was remarkable, being not more than five feet four inches high, with a long body, and legs so bowed that I have never seen them resembled, except in jockeys, who have been such from childhood. His head and face once seen could never be forgotten—long thin hair reached to his shoulders, sparsely covered a broad, high cranium; forehead, round and broad, above small, keen, bright, gray eyes, set deep in a broad flatish face, gave you the impression of a man whose wits were in careful training, and who objected, both by instinct and education, to deceive or being deceived. I have often been smiled at as fanciful for remarking a resemblance between Chris North of Blackwood and Chris Carson; yet it was very plain to me, despite the evident difference, and the knowledge that North was a giant in person and intellect, for Carson was as accomplished as North in woodcraft, and rarely equaled in riding, running, shooting, or jumping. Think of the concentrated power of that small form, which used, when young, to jump eighteen feet at one running jump. It was not, however, in physical or mental traits so much as in the similar bold, honest, lion-like physiognomy that I found the resemblance. At Garland, Carson kept open house, exercising the most unbounded hospitality to all visitors and passers-by, who were often sufficiently numerous, and in these were included the Ute Indians, of whom he had once been agent, and with whom he had such a powerful influence that no trouble took place when an appeal could be made to him. In any dispute with them, when violence seemed inventable, all could be allayed by offering to send for "Kity," as they termed him; and it was a study to see him sitting, surrounded by them, talking as kindly and familiarly as to his own children; rolling cigaritos and passing the tobacco around, all the while laughing, joking, talking Spanish, or Ute tongue, with such abundant gesticulations and hand-movement, that it seemed to me that he talked more with his hands and shoulders than with his tongue.
